

Capital Area Council of Governments (CAPCOG) is accepting applications for a GIS Analyst II. This position performs complex geographic information system work. Work involves input and manipulation of geographic information to create, maintain, display, update and produce accurate maps and other representation of data; assimilation and organization of data from multiple sources using advanced geoprocessing, model building, and geocoding; monitoring and maintaining CAPCOG Information Clearinghouse website and data content; assisting the director with the Capital Area Geospatial Base Mapping (GeoMap) Project and other duties as assigned. Visit www.capcog.org/employment to read the complete job description, download an application, and learn how to submit the application. RESUMES WITHOUT COMPLETED, SIGNED APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.